The designations of the Preferred Shares and the powers, preferences, qualifications, limitations or restrictions, and relative rights thereof shall be as follows:

a. The board of directors is expressly authorized at any time and from time to time to provide for the issuance of the Preferred Stock in one or more series, with such voting powers and with such designations, preferences and relative, participating, option or other special rights and qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof as shall be expressed in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue thereof adopted by the board of directors and as are not expressed in this Certificate of Incorporation or any amendment hereto, including (but without limiting the generality of the foregoing the following:

(1) the designation of such series;

(2) the dividend rate of such series, the conditions and dates upon which such dividends shall be payable, the preference or relation which such dividends shall bear to the dividends payable on any other class or classes or on any-other series of any class or classes of capital stock of the corporation, and whether such dividends shall be cumulative or noncumulative;

(3) whether the shares of such series may be redeemed by the corporation, and, if so, the times, prices and other terms and conditions of such redemption;

(4) the terms and amount of any sinking fund provided for the purchase or redemption of the shares of such series;

(5) whether the shares of such series shall be convertible into or exchangeable for shares of any other class or classes or of any other series of any class or classes of capital stock of the corporation, and, if the provision be made for conversion or exchange, the times, prices, rates, adjustments and other terms and condition of such conversion or exchange.

(6) the restrictions and conditions, if any, upon the issue or reissue of any additional Preferred Shares ranking on a parity with or prior to such shares as to dividends or upon dissolution; and

(7) the rights of holders of the shares of such series upon the liquidation or the distribution of assets of the corporation, which rights may be different in the case of a voluntary liquidation than in the case of an involuntary liquidation.

b. Except as otherwise required by law and except for such voting powers with respect to the election of directors or other matters as may be stated in the resolutions of the board of directors creating any series of Preferred Shares, the holders of any such series shall have no voting power whatsoever.

c. 200,000 shares of Preferred Stock are hereby designated Series A Preferred Stock ("A Preferred Stock") with the following rights, preferences and limitations:

(i) the A Preferred Stock shall be non-voting, (ii) the holders of the A Preferred Stock, as a group, shall have the right to receive, pro rata, a mandatory dividend of 10% of the Company's adjusted gross profit as reflected on its annual corporate income tax return and to be paid within ten days of the filing thereof, and (iii) upon dissolution or winding up of the Company, 10% of the assets of the Company shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to the holders of the A Preferred Stock prior to division and distribution of assets to the holders of the Company's Common Stock.

4.3 Each share of common stock shall be entitled to one vote, either in person or by proxy, at all stockholder meetings.

4.4 Cumulative voting shall not be allowed in the election of directors.

4.5 All outstanding shares of common stock shall share equally in dividends and upon liquidation subject to the rights of any Preferred Shares. Dividends are payable at the discretion of the board of directors at such times and in such amounts as it deems advisable, subject to the rights of any Preferred Shares and the provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law.
